MAYOR'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

Kingston, Jan. 2nd, 1928.

To the Members of the Council of the City of Kingston.

Gentlemen:—

"I wish to present to you my hearty congratulations on your being elected as aldermen for the ensuing year. I also take this opportunity of tendering to the electors of the city my best thanks and appreciation in electing me as mayor for 1928. I can assure them that I consider it a high honor, and my best efforts will be put forth in fulfilling the duties of the office. To those who have not hitherto served I trust that you will realize your responsibility, will find the work interesting and that the city will receive much benefit from your service.

Unemployment.

"As is usually the case in all urban centres, especially at this time of year, there exists a certain amount of unemployment in our city. This is a matter which to my mind is most important and deserves the earnest consideration of this council. Even if we have to do construction work to employ labor a little ahead of the time I recommend that work that is planned be undertaken immediately to ease the situation and thus avoid the dole which no man or woman with red blood in their veins will accept if there is work to be had. I feel confident that the Utilities Commission will assist wherever possible in this matter.

"I intimated in my nomination speech that there was a likelihood of orders being placed with the Canadian Locomotive Co., around the New Year. The first of these orders has just been placed and although not large it will enable the works to again commence operations immediately and be in readiness for larger business that we hope and expect will come in the near future, thus employing labor at a time of the year when employment is needed. The Collingwood Shipbuilding Co., have work on hand that will enable them to operate through the winter, employing both skilled and unskilled labor.

Harbour Improvement.

"It may be that another port than Kingston has been recommended by the government engineers as the Deep Water Terminal. The government has not received nor considered the report of the engineers who have been employed on this work but the decision will shortly be made. We have had an active and competent Harbor Committee who have had the backing of the Council and I believe the citizens generally. This committee has left nothing undone up to the present to bring the terminal to Kingston. We must not rest, however, until the final decision is made; we must continue our efforts and if needs be ask the elc tors to vote a reasonable amount of money to obtain the desired result.

Paving.

"It is very gratifying to all citizens of Kingston that upper Princess street is to paved this year. I would recommend that the work be completed as early in the spring as possible in preparation for the tourists who will use this main artery in and out of the city in greater numbers than ever. Bagot street from Johnson to West streets also requires paving, and I trust the under surface work will be undertaken soon to enable the work to proceed. Kingston is now one of the best paved cities in Canada. Let us keep it so by doing all necessary patching and repairing promptly and efficiently.

New Hotel.

"The new La Salle Hotel will be open for business shortly. In view of the fact that this handsome structure with beautiful furnishings has been provided for us without assistance from civic funds, it behooves us as a council, as it does all citizens, to support and patronize the hotel in every way possible. Here is an enterprise financed and constructed by local interests which goes to show that our citizens are ready to invest in promising industries and enterprises notwithstanding the statement made by some pessimists amongst us who claim that such is not the case.

Industries.

"In so far as new industries are concerned we have to confess that the city has made little progress recently. I have no doubt but that this year's committee on Industries will be alert and will exercise vigilance so that no opportunity to obtain new industries will be allowed to pass. I am a strong believer in supporting my home town and I feel that all citizens, whether merchants or consumers, should patronize local factories and merchants wherever possible instead of making purchases from outsiders. By outsiders I mean mail order houses and chain store organizations. Such businesses are of no benefit to the community, they pay as little taxes as possible, seldom if ever subscribe to local charities or enterprises and take their profits out of the city to larger centres. We, as a council, should assist and encourage those industries we now have as well as endeavor to procure news ones.

New Budget.

"Unfortunately this year's council has to provide for obligations entered into by last year's council, which they did not provide for, possibly these commitments were unavoidably handed on to us; these amounts together with the current year's demands will swell the expenditure for 1928 to such an extent that an increase in the tax rate appears inevitable. It will be my business and aim to see that the strictest economy compatible with efficiency is practiced in all departments of civic administration, and I request your earnest support in this effort so that the increase in the tax rate will be as small as possible and thus make the tax burden on the ratepayers as light as it can be made.

"The tourist traffic has increased very much in the past few summers and will increase greatly in the future. These holiday seekers are good spenders and distribute millions in the country, which money reaches all classes of citizens. I strongly recommend that this Council should encourage the development of the tourist trade for Kingston in every way.

"In my opinion there is a decided lack of co-operation and community spirit in the city. There appears to be no central board functioning from which the operations of the different clubs and societies seeking to develop and build up the city can radiate. At the earliest opportunity, I propose to take up this matter and I look for the support of every member of Council. I have in mind the organization of a body such as a "Chamber of Commerce", backed by the City Council in which organization all clubs, societies and private citizens who are working for the good of the city will have membership.

Co-operation and Compromise.

"Under the Municipal Act we have many boards, e.g., Board of Education, Library Board, Board of Directors of the Home for Aged and Infirm, Hospital Board, Children's Aid Society, etc., who have special duties to perform. The City Council is the elective body, and as such are directly responsible to the electors for the proper disbursement of their taxes. Certain sums of money are placed in the budget each year to defray or help to defray the cost of maintaining these institutions. I have noticed that sometimes there are wide differences of opinions between them and our Council as to the amount of money they should receive. I believe these differences are the result of misunderstandings, and I desire that it be eliminated as far as possible this year. To do this I know that a very close and friendly feeling must exist between the heads of these institutions and myself. It does not make a bit of difference whether we happen to be at the head of a civic body by election or appointment, our interests are the same, namely, to promote the progress of our city and the welfare of our citizens. The latch key of the mayor's office this year will hang on the outside and I invite the different organizations to call and consult with us. They may not get all they think they should get, but we will try and show them our position in each case and I am satisfied everything will be agreeably arranged by the oldest and best method, that of compromise.

"In conclusion, I ask your co-operation and also request every member of council to give his best attention to all matters of public interest which will be presented during the year, and I trust that harmony will prevail and that the greatest amount of good will result from our deliberations."

MOTIONS.

Moved by Ald. Anderson, (6) that a vote of appreciation tendered the Mayor for his services as presiding Officer for this Council for the year now ended. His Worship has brought to bear those personal qualities for fair dealing for which he has always been known, and has given us a very enjoyable and harmonious term, and a very profitable one for the Municipality. We are very much pleased that he will occupy the same position during the ensuing year and with the experience gained the success of the coming year is already acknowledged.

Ald. Hopkins, in seconding the Motion, stated that the Mayor has presided at all times with dignity and despatch, and while he was sometimes lenient, especially with the new Members, yet he did not allow the procedure or Rules of Council to be interefered with. The Aldermen began the year with a knowledge of personal confidence in his Worship, which has been increased during the Session, with result that his rulings and advice, being fair and just, were always respected. This Council desires to wish His Worship the Compliments of the Season, and to predict a successful year under his supervision in 1929.—Carried.
